

*Revelation 7:9-10
Living Bible*

9 After this I saw a vast crowd, too great to count, from all nations and provinces and languages, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white, with palm branches in their hands. 10 And they were shouting with a mighty shout, "Salvation comes from our God upon the throne, and from the Lamb."

"Salvation we owe to God" the great crowd of people from everywhere on earth understands this point very well and knows that they owe their lives to God. In continuing with this address we will now look at Genesis 18 verse ¹³Then the LORD said to Abraham, "Sarah laughed and said she was too old to have a baby. Again the reaction of Abraham and Sarah shows that they are not only real but also modern people. The laughing that Sarah had shown, this displays the elderly community and how they feel about their lives. They aren't young anymore and their goals and accomplishments have changed along with their age, I believe this is called maturity. Sarah may have given up a long time ago in producing a family and worrying about it. These are the natural elements that we endure with imperfection of the human body, Mark 5:25-34. When God suddenly and out of nowhere prophecy that Sarah and Abraham will produce a child the laughing that Sarah display was surely not because she lacked faith in God even after all these years as a servant. Well, not only did God prophecy that they will have a child God also said it will happen in just one year, pregnancy and birth. What passage in the Bible tells us that God understood perfectly what is in Sarah's heart? At Isaiah 40:29 (Names of God Bible) ²⁹ He gives strength to those who grow tired and increases the strength of those who are weak. The passage above tells us that Sarah and Abraham are tired, they have lived a long life. They have moved since God introduced the Nomad lifestyle to them, every few months or so. The reason for the frequent moving is that God can show them the land that they will eventually inherit. So, one of the first things that happen is that power of strength was given to them.

What additional information can we find in the Bible? At Philippians 4:13 (Easy-to-Read Version) ¹³ Christ is the one who gives me the strength I need to do whatever I must do.

When we look up into outer space the stars the moon and the sun we recognize the orbit rotation of the planets around the sun. We know for a fact that logically these things cannot materialize by themselves as if some miracle happened. Rather we can attribute this design to the Lord and know within our hearts that someone is behind these fascinating creations. What could be the reason why I should explain matters in this way? Simply put we already have things that express that God is awesome in power with the ability to think amazing things. What passage does the Bible have that expresses the ability of Almighty God? At Job 42:2 (Easy-to-Read Version) ² "I know you can do everything. You make plans, and nothing can change or stop them. The key point in the passage is indeed God is good and has the ability to do everything. If is explained that God planned everything that he wants and makes sure that it has everything it needs. So when we say that God will provide salvation to all the chosen ones we know that he always plans everything out. Things go according to plan and the calculation necessary to achieve the design it was made to accomplish. What additional information can we find in the Bible? At Jeremiah 32:16-21 (Names of God Bible) ¹⁶ "After I had given the copies to Baruch, son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh. I prayed, ¹⁷ 'Adonay Yahweh, you made heaven and earth by your great strength and powerful arm. Nothing is too hard for you. ¹⁸ You show mercy to thousands of generations. However, you punish children for the wickedness of their parents. You, El, are great and mighty. Your name is Yahweh Tsebaoth.¹⁹ You make wise plans and do mighty things. You see everything the descendants of Adam do. You reward them for the way they live and for what they do.²⁰ You performed miraculous signs and amazing things in Egypt. To this day you are still doing them in Israel. You made a name for yourself that continues to this day.²¹ You brought your people from Egypt with miraculous signs and amazing things, with a mighty hand and a powerful arm, and with great terror.

Because we are humans with limited intelligence it may be best not to expect to go into details of what salvation consist of. We can trust in the Lord and knows that the body will surely turn out just fine. This is the faith in which we are meant to develop, as time goes on we can turn the faith in on ourselves and believe in yourself powerfully and strongly as you have done so in the Lord. Nothing is wrong with that nor is it vain to believe in you. What passage in the Bible expresses true Christian faith, especially in ourselves? At 2 Timothy 4:7 (Easy-to-Read Version) 7 I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have served the Lord faithfully. This passage expresses the ability of each Christians to evaluate their own service and the accomplishments acquired and then find confidence in it. This is important without this ability you will never see how your worship to God in various forms were exactly what was needed and you did just so, Genesis 6:22. The trophy of salvation will always be given to those that love God and their best in spite of imperfection to render service to God.

You can believe that and put faith into it since it is indeed truth.

Can salvation be acquired by human elements in the modern era? Yes it can be given out exactly as the Bible foretold at 1 Peter 1:5. This is to say is there something on earth today that will produce salvation in the body of the chosen ones? Yes the photo used for this address was meant to tell all as a revelation that the Tree of Life was formerly known as the Ginkgo Biloba tree. In the Bible there is not much information under the tree of life but it was meant in the modern era will find the tree because it was revealed to all. In looking for information gathered by doctors on the Ginkgo Tree going online what information can we find on this tree?

This amazing herbal extract is one of the most beneficial supplements for health, longevity and mental wellbeing. Christopher Hobbs, the noted herbalist, calls ginkgo the “elixir of youth.” Many herbalists say that ginkgo is the single most beneficial herb for general wellbeing and if an individual were to take only one supplement, it should be ginkgo.

The ginkgo tree is the oldest surviving tree species in the world and dates back at least 200 million years. The tree is very hardy, resistant to insects, mold, bacteria, viruses, and pollution. For this reason, it is now planted extensively in American cities and used as a shade tree. The tree is so hardy that a solitary ginkgo was the only tree to survive the atomic blast at Hiroshima. Ginkgo trees can live for 1,000 years and grow to 100-120 feet high.

Before the Ice Age, the tree was found worldwide. The species was nearly destroyed during that time and, legend has it, survived only because it was carefully cultivated by Buddhist monks in China and Japan who believed it to be sacred.

The medicinal uses of Ginkgo biloba can be traced back to the oldest Chinese medical literature (2800 B.C.). Traditional Chinese medicine prescribes ginkgo leaves for their ability to “benefit the brain.” Ginkgo leaf extracts are now among the leading prescription medicines in both Germany and France, where over 100,000 physicians write more than 10 million prescriptions yearly.

In the 1960s, German researchers first extracted the active ingredients of ginkgo, called Ginkgo biloba Extract or GbE. They named the extract GbE 761 which is known in the US as Ginkgo biloba 24/6. This reflects that the standard extract has 24% ginkgo flavone glycosides and 6% terpene lactones. Amounts of other constituents, notably bilobalide were also defined.

They also began investigating the effects of GbE in numerous clinical studies. Over the past 50 years, a wealth of information produced by these studies has shown GbE to be helpful for many of the problems that plague mankind and essentially has no negative side effects. A clinical study on GbE, using over 8,000 individuals, showed that only 4 out of every 1,000 (0.4%) experienced some form of allergic reaction to GbE, which was most often expressed as an upset stomach, rash or headache. When ginkgo was discontinued, the adverse reactions disappeared.

The many positive effects of ginkgo are:

- 1 – Potent antioxidant, eliminating toxins from the body.
- 2 – Promotes blood vessel health, fights hardening of the arteries and reduces plaque build-up.
- 3 – Increases absorption of oxygen and glucose in the brain.
- 4 – Inhibits the action of PAF, a leading cause of stroke.
- 5 – Improves sexual function in men.
- 6 – Acts as an antidepressant.
- 7 – Fights cancer development.
- 8 – Antibiotic properties.

Sounds almost too good to be true, but it is. Ginkgo biloba is one of the most healthful herbs that you can take
